

SUPER BOWL

47 Super years

From humble beginnings to the biggest spectacle in sports

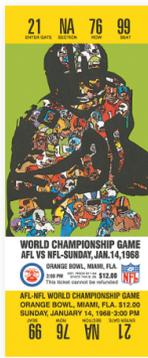

SUPER BOWL I

Date: Jan. 15, 1967
Site: Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum
Result: Green Bay Packers 35, Kansas City Chiefs 10
MVP: Bart Starr, Green Bay quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Packers by 14; there was no points total for this game (result: favorite).
National anthem: Arizona and Michigan marching bands.
Halftime entertainment: Arizona and Grambling State marching bands, trumpeter Al Hirt.

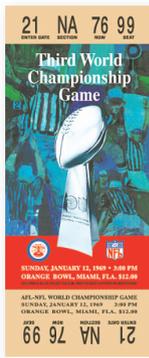

SUPER BOWL II

Date: Jan. 14, 1968
Site: Orange Bowl, Miami
Result: Green Bay Packers 33, Oakland Raiders 14
MVP: Bart Starr, Green Bay quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Packers by 13½; 43 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Grambling State marching band.
Halftime entertainment: Grambling State marching band.

SUPER BOWL III

Date: Jan. 12, 1969
Site: Orange Bowl, Miami
Result: New York Jets 16, Baltimore Colts 7
MVP: Joe Namath, Jets quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Colts by 18; 40 points (result: underdog, under).
National anthem: Trumpeter Lloyd Geisler.
Halftime entertainment: Florida A&M and area high school bands.

SUPER BOWL IV

Date: Jan. 11, 1970
Site: Tulane Stadium, New Orleans
Result: Kansas City Chiefs 23, Minnesota Vikings 7
MVP: Len Dawson, Kansas City quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Vikings by 12; 39 points (result: underdog, under).
National anthem: Trumpeter Al Hirt.
Halftime entertainment: Carol Channing, Southern University marching band.

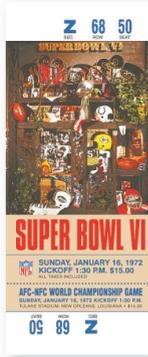

SUPER BOWL V

Date: Jan. 17, 1971
Site: Orange Bowl, Miami
Result: Baltimore Colts 16, Dallas Cowboys 13
MVP: Chuck Howley, Dallas linebacker
Betting line/over-under: Colts by 2½; 36 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Trumpeter Tommy Loy.
Halftime entertainment: Southeast Missouri State marching band, Anita Bryant.

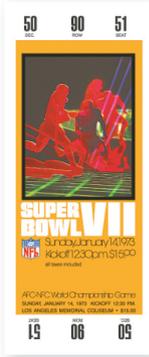

SUPER BOWL VI

Date: Jan. 16, 1972
Site: Tulane Stadium, New Orleans
Result: Dallas Cowboys 24, Miami Dolphins 3
MVP: Roger Staubach, Dallas quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Cowboys by 6; 34 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: U.S. Air Force Academy Chorale.
Halftime entertainment: A salute to Louis Armstrong, featuring Ella Fitzgerald and Carol Channing, trumpeter Al Hirt and the U.S. Marine Corps drill team.

SUPER BOWL VII

Date: Jan. 14, 1973
Site: Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum
Result: Miami Dolphins 14, Washington Redskins 7
MVP: Jake Scott, Miami safety
Betting line/over-under: Dolphins by 1; 33 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Little Angels children's choir.
Halftime entertainment: University of Michigan marching band, Woody Herman, Andy Williams.

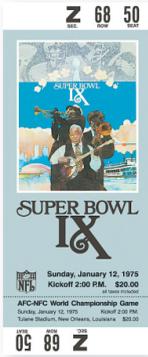

SUPER BOWL VIII

Date: Jan. 13, 1974
Site: Rice Stadium, Houston
Result: Miami Dolphins 24, Minnesota Vikings 7
MVP: Larry Csonka, Miami running back
Betting line/over-under: Dolphins by 6½; 33 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Charley Pride.
Halftime entertainment: University of Texas marching band and Miss Texas, Judy Mallett, on fiddle.

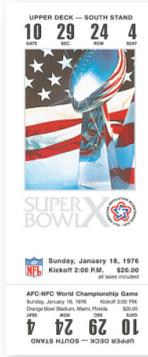

SUPER BOWL IX

Date: Jan. 12, 1975
Site: Tulane Stadium, New Orleans
Result: Pittsburgh Steelers 16, Minnesota Vikings 6
MVP: Franco Harris, Pittsburgh running back
Betting line/over-under: Steelers by 3; 33 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Grambling State marching band.
Halftime entertainment: A tribute to Duke Ellington, featuring his son Mercer Ellington, and the Grambling State marching band.

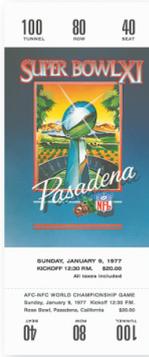

SUPER BOWL X

Date: Jan. 18, 1976
Site: Orange Bowl, Miami
Result: Pittsburgh Steelers 21, Dallas Cowboys 17
MVP: Lynn Swann, Pittsburgh receiver
Betting line/over-under: Steelers by 7; 36 points (result: underdog, over).
National anthem: Tom Sullivan.
Halftime entertainment: Up With People.

SUPER BOWL XI

Date: Jan. 9, 1977
Site: Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.
Result: Oakland Raiders 34, Minnesota Vikings 14
MVP: Fred Biletnikoff, Oakland receiver
Betting line/over-under: Raiders by 4; 38 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Vikki Carr sang "America the Beautiful."
Halftime entertainment: A Disney production based on "It's a Small World," featuring cast members of the "New Mickey Mouse Club" and the Los Angeles Unified All-City Band.

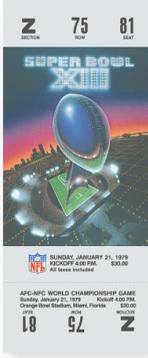

SUPER BOWL XII

Date: Jan. 15, 1978
Site: Superdome, New Orleans
Result: Dallas Cowboys 27, Denver Broncos 10
MVP: Harvey Martin, Dallas defensive end, and Randy White, Dallas defensive tackle
Betting line/over-under: Cowboys by 6; 39 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Phyllis Kelly.
Halftime entertainment: Clarinetist Pete Fountain, trumpeter Al Hirt, Tyler Junior College Apache band and Apache Belles drill team.

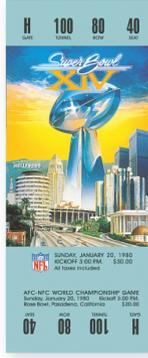

SUPER BOWL XIII

Date: Jan. 21, 1979
Site: Orange Bowl, Miami
Result: Pittsburgh Steelers 35, Dallas Cowboys 31
MVP: Terry Bradshaw, Pittsburgh quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Steelers by 3½; 37 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: The Colgate Thirteen.
Halftime entertainment: A salute to the Caribbean with various Caribbean bands.

SUPER BOWL XIV

Date: Jan. 20, 1980
Site: Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.
Result: Pittsburgh Steelers 31, Los Angeles Rams 19
MVP: Terry Bradshaw, Pittsburgh quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Steelers by 10½; 36 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Cheryl Ladd.
Halftime entertainment: Up With People.

SUPER BOWL XV

Date: Jan. 25, 1981
Site: Superdome, New Orleans
Result: Oakland Raiders 27, Philadelphia Eagles 10
MVP: Jim Plunkett, Oakland quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Eagles by 3; 37½ points (result: underdog, under).
National anthem: Helen O'Connell.
Halftime entertainment: Up With People.

SUPER BOWL XVI

Date: Jan. 24, 1982
Site: Silverdome, Pontiac, Mich.
Result: San Francisco 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
MVP: Joe Montana, San Francisco quarterback
Betting line/over-under: 49ers by 1; 48 points (result: favorite, under).
National anthem: Diana Ross.
Halftime entertainment: Up With People.

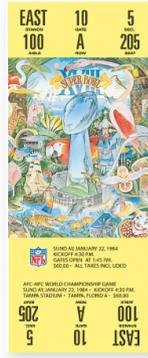

SUPER BOWL XVII

Date: Jan. 30, 1983
Site: Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.
Result: Washington Redskins 27, Miami Dolphins 17
MVP: John Riggins, Washington running back
Betting line/over-under: Dolphins by 3; 36½ (result: underdog, over).
National anthem: Leslie Easterbrook.
Halftime entertainment: Los Angeles Super Drill Team.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

Date: Jan. 22, 1984
Site: Tampa (Fla.) Stadium
Result: Los Angeles Raiders 38, Washington Redskins 9
MVP: Marcus Allen, Raiders running back
Betting line/over-under: Redskins by 3; 48 points (result: underdog, under).
National anthem: Barry Manilow.
Halftime entertainment: University of Florida, Florida State marching bands.

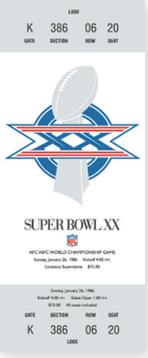

SUPER BOWL XIX

Date: Jan. 20, 1985
Site: Stanford (Calif.) Stadium
Result: San Francisco 49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16
MVP: Joe Montana, San Francisco QB
Betting line/over-under: 49ers by 3½; 53½ points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: San Francisco Children's Chorus, Boys Chorus, Girls Chorus and Piedmont Children's Choir.
Halftime entertainment: Tops In Blue, a performing group from the U.S. Air Force.

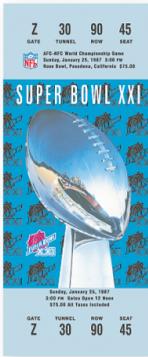

SUPER BOWL XX

Date: Jan. 26, 1986
Site: Superdome, New Orleans
Result: Chicago Bears 46, New England Patriots 10
MVP: Richard Dent, Chicago defensive end
Betting line/over-under: Bears by 10; 37½ points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Trumpeter Wynton Marsalis.
Halftime entertainment: Up With People.

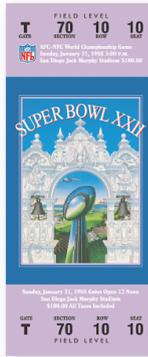

SUPER BOWL XXI

Date: Jan. 25, 1987
Site: Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.
Result: New York Giants 39, Denver Broncos 20
MVP: Phil Simms, Giants quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Giants by 9½; 40 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Neil Diamond.
Halftime entertainment: Southern California high school drill teams and dancers.

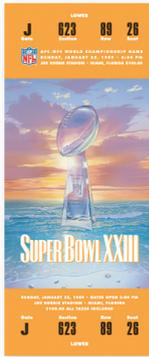

SUPER BOWL XXII

Date: Jan. 31, 1988
Site: Jack Murphy Stadium, San Diego
Result: Washington Redskins 42, Denver Broncos 10
MVP: Doug Williams, Washington quarterback
Betting line/over-under: Broncos by 3; 47 points (result: underdog, over).
National anthem: Trumpeter Herb Alpert.
Halftime entertainment: Chubby Checker, the Rockettes, 88 grand pianos.

SUPER BOWL XXIII

Date: Jan. 22, 1989
Site: Joe Robbie Stadium, Miami
Result: San Francisco 49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16
MVP: Jerry Rice, San Francisco receiver
Betting line/over-under: 49ers by 7; 48 points (result: underdog, under).
National anthem: Billy Joel.
Halftime entertainment: Elvis Presto, South Florida-area dancers and performers, 3-D effects.

SUPER BOWL XXIV

Date: Jan. 28, 1990
Site: Superdome, New Orleans
Result: San Francisco 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10
MVP: Joe Montana, San Francisco quarterback
Betting line/over-under: 49ers by 12; 48 points (result: favorite, over).
National anthem: Aaron Neville.
Halftime entertainment: A salute to New Orleans and the comic strip "Peanuts," featuring clarinetist Pete Fountain, fiddle player Doug Kershaw and singer Irma Thomas.

