Your acceptance indicates that you agree not to provide information that you have a contractual or legal duty not to divulge and otherwise will comply with the Terms and Conditions of Council Membership (http://www.thecouncils.com/ma_terms.asp). If you are unsure if you are able to accept this invitation given other agreements or obligations you may have, please feel free to forward the topic of this invitation above to any third party who can help you confirm your ability to consult on this topic or decline this invitation. For example, if you have consulted for an entity or participated in a clinical trial, you may have obligations to keep certain information as confidential. Please make sure you adhere to these obligations and all other guidelines and requirements of your institution and trial sponsors (as applicable) or decline this project invitation if you are uncertain about the scope of such obligations. If you discontinue participation in a project in order to comply with the Terms and Conditions, you may submit a payment request for time allocated for that consultation.

Please note that we expect to compensate you for the time you spend on the phone with our client -- we do NOT generally compensate for preparation time without prior approval from Gerson Lehrman Group. A client CANNOT authorize outside research. Please obtain authorization from a GLG representative. Also, please remember you must not mention your other Gerson Lehrman Group projects with any client - this includes the topic of past discussions, identity of clients you have worked with, and frequency of work you do with us. Feel free to contact us directly with any questions.

If you have any questions regarding the specifics of this consultation, please contact:
