I, Micky K. Osburn, make the following statement:

On 2/24/94 at approximately 5:15 p.m., I was standing in the hallway near the boys locker room outside the gym. At that time I was talking with Brenda McBrayer, Asst. Vice-principal, teacher Paul Jensen and Mrs. Jan Kung, aid and sponsor of the cheerleaders who were selling pizza and pop as a fund raiser. I really don't remember what was being discussed, I was watching the students. Mr. Jensen said something, then I felt his hand on my left buttocks. He patted me as he walked away. I remember being totally surprised, astonished and angry. I looked up and he was walking down the hall toward the cafeteria. Mrs. McBrayer, who was facing me, asked me what was wrong. I turned to her and said the first thing that entered my mind, "If he touches my butt again, I'm going to kill him." Mr. Jensen had left the area and I remained on duty in that area until approximately 6:45 p.m. when I left the building. I did not confront Mr. Jensen. I reported the incident to Mrs. Karin Stevens, Principal, Lakota, on 2/25/94. The above statement of one page is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
