FINDINGS ON SECOND
RESENTENCING

This matter came before the court pursuant to an order of remand from the Court of Appeals, directing this court to enter further findings explaining the exceptional sentence twice previously imposed. The court having considered the entire record herein, including the pre-sentence report, the report of Dr. Weiss, and the letters submitted at sentencing, now enters the following findings and conclusions:

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. With respect to count I of cause no. 87-1-00355-2 (Brenda Ronning), the aggravating circumstances are as follows:

a. The defendant abused his position of trust as coach of the victim's soccer team, by abusing her during overnight stays during away-game soccer matches.

b. The defendant abused the victim on many distinct occasions.

c. The defendant involved his daughter in these incidents, by abusing the victim while she was staying overnight with the daughter, thus using his daughter as a snare and a decoy.
